

Education

September 2016 – June 2019: University College London

BSc Archaeology (Projected First Class Honours).
Focus on: Human Evolution, Human Remains, Public Archaeology

September 2009 – June 2016: Dame Alice Owen's School, UK

A Levels: English Literature (A), History (A), Sociology (B)
AS Levels: Religious Studies (A), English Literature (A), History (A), Sociology (B)
GCSEs: 12 Subjects A*-B, including Maths (A), and English (A*)

Work Experience

September 2018- present: IT Support, UCL Information Services Division

- Responsible for checking lecture theatres, classrooms and computer rooms across campus, testing AV equipment each morning before classes
- Fixed minor faults, and reported patterns of faulty equipment to UCL Information Services Division

July-August 2018: Intern/Field School Student, UCL & La Ponte + Aditu Arkaeologia

- Excavation and post-excavation lab work on site of a medieval village and medieval burial ground. Responsibilities changed in response to newly developing needs on-site
- Post-excavation work involved concisely communicating the findings in a written report
- I also helped to design and implement a public archaeology program to inform local communities about our project. I then delivered this program to local children (aged 4-12), later adapting some of the content for an adult audience

Sep 2017-Dec 2017: Transition Mentor, UCL

- Worked with a group of 10 first year students within my department on a weekly basis, to help acclimatise to the university environment
- I created and delivered weekly presentations and workshops, providing students with information on campus resources and support, and helping them develop the skills needed for university. I also answered questions they had about the department or their course

September 2016 - January 2017: Barista, SU UCL Cafe.

- Worked front of house, serving customers hot food and drinks efficiently during busy periods. I also monitored stocks, and operated the till

Volunteering

July 2018 – present: LGBT+ Officer, Students' Union UCL

- Managed a committee of 10 elected students to run events for and support fellow LGBT+ students. The committee organised an average of 10 events a month

- I represented the interests of LGBT+ Students on Union Council, Students' Union UCL's democratic body
- I organised a grassroots campaign around LGBT+ students' healthcare access, and developed a Pride in Sport workshop for UCL sport societies, both with the aim of making a positive social impact on campus

July 2018 & July 2017: Conference Organiser, Non-Binary in Tech

- Organised a one-day conference highlighting transgender workers in the tech industry. Sponsors included GitHub, Bloomberg, Condé Nast, and Samsung Internet
- I organised a call for submissions, selected speakers from abstracts, co-ordinated speakers, and chaired a panel discussion

Sep 2017: 'Zero Tolerance' Trainer, UCL

- Alongside other volunteers, I developed and delivered a 'Zero Tolerance' workshop to help educate UCL students and UCL SU staff on sexual harassment and consent. All new students and staff at SU UCL completed the workshop
- Workshop material was adapted and reworked to different audiences

July 2017- July 2018: Webmaster, Society of Archaeological Students

- Created a website using HTML, CSS, JS, and PHP. Promoted events using Facebook, Twitter, and a regular email newsletter

Conference Talks & Publications

March 2018: Conference Talk, Skeletons, Stories and Social Bodies Conference

- Winner of the Student Podium Prize, awarded for the best student podium speaker across under- and post-graduate levels, for a talk on previously unexamined anomalies in human remains